DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-3, 6-8, and 11-13, drawn to determining an optimal fusion current for fusion splicing ends of two optical fibers.

Group II, claim(s) 4-5, 9-10, and 14-15, drawn to an apparatus for determining a fusion current to be used in splicing ends of two optical fibers.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the technical features that are common to both the method and apparatus, specifically, determining an optimal fusion current for fusion splicing ends of two optical fibers to each other using an electric discharge between electrodes, including measuring the intensity of light from ends of two optical fibers, and calculating a proportional change from a fusion current and a heating current, are disclosed by US Patent 5,909,527 (Zheng hereinafter), and thus does not define a contribution over the prior art.

Zheng discloses determining an optimal fusion current to be used in welding the ends of two optical fibers to each other the intensity of light emitted from the fibers is measured when heating the fibers by means of currents between welding electrodes (abstract). Zheng further discloses calculating a proportional change from a fusion current and a heating current (abstract), wherein the exponential type relation that is determined is interpreted by the examiner as a proportional change.

The applicant is kindly reminded that lack of unity of invention may be directly evident "a priori," that is, before considering the claims in relation to any prior art, or may only become apparent "a posteriori," that is, after taking the prior art into consideration. If it can be established that a single feature or a group of features common to both independent claims is known, then there is lack of unity a posteriori, since the single feature or group of features common to both independent claims is not a technical feature that defines a contribution over the prior art (see MPEP 1850 (II)).

3. A telephone call was made to Steven M. duBois on 27 August 2009 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
